Beginning Ash Wednesday to Palm Sunday (February 25 - April 5), we will join with other Christians locally and around the world to offer 40 straight days of 24-hour prayer. CLFMI has adopted April 1-3, 2009 as three days where we will provide continual prayer and community-wide prayer meetings each evening from 7-8PM. Starting in March, we will ask you to sign up for one or more one-hour prayer shifts, day and night, to pray for our church, county, nation, and world. A prayer guide will be available if you are interested in purchasing a copy, or have any questions, please contact me at buck@umich.edu or 734-483-7967.

God is willing to do more than we could ask or think (Ephesians 3:20). If we ask anything according to His will, He hears us (1John 5:14). The same God who created heaven and earth created prayer so we would have a way to communicate with Him. Our direct point of access is Jesus Christ. Without Him, our prayers are ineffective. With Him, we can approach the throne of grace with confidence so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need (Hebrews 4:16).

Love...

From the beginning we have heard that we should love one another. (1John 3:11 NIV)

Love is doesn't lash out when wronged.

Love is quick to forgive even if the other party is unrepentant.

Love encourages rather than criticizes.

Love searches for redeemable qualities in everyone.

Love doesn't keep a running list of someone's faults.

Love admits when wrong and seeks to make amends.

Love shows what is right rather than just telling.

Love examines itself before pointing a finger at another.

Love takes up the slack for another and doesn't hold it against them.

Love will do for others without seeking credit.

Love listens.
Love inspires.
Love is objective.
Love tells the truth.
Love wants what is best for others.
Love is hopeful.
